ATTEMPT TO KILL FRENCH PREMIER.

SEVEN SHOTS FIRED AT POINT-BLANK RANGE.

Three Wounds Inflicted.

(American Wireless by courtesy of the "Daily Bulletin".)

New York, February 19.

An Associated Press message states: Seven shots were fired at M. Clemenceau, the Premier of France, at point-blank range by Emile Cottin known an anarchist circles at Milan.

Three bullets struck the Premier.

One bullet entered under the right shoulder and lodged under the left shoulder, missing the spinal cord and lungs, the other two wounds being scarcely more than abrasions of the skin on the right arm and right hand.

Two other bullets passed through M. Clemenceau's clothing.

THE NEW ARMISTICE.

GERMAN ACCEPTANCE NOTIFIED.

Paris, Feb. 17.

A communiqué states: The Supreme War Council met to-day. Marshal Foch informed the ministers of the acceptance by the Germans of the conditions for the renewal of the armistice.

HOW TO ENSURE PEACE.

Paris, Feb. 11.

The French press and public everywhere discuss the remarkable situation created by the publication of Marshal Foch's new drastic peace terms and M. Clemenceau's interview. Two methods are discussed for crystallising the armistice into terms ensuring peace: to fix at a definite limit the German armaments and raise the Allied demands for the surrender of German material of war, making it impossible to equip and maintain larger forces than those approved by the Allies.—Havas.

DEATH OF SIR WILFRED LAURIER.

London, Feb. 5.

Sir Wilfred Laurier is dead. The St. Hon. Sir Wilfred Laurier P.C., G.C.M.G., D.C.L., LL.D., etc., was Premier of Canada from 1906 to 1911, the first French Canadian to hold that post. He was born at St. Lin, Quebec, on 20th November 1841, so that he was 77 years of age. He was educated at L'Assomption College, McGill University, where he was B.C.L. in 1864. He became a barrister in that year and was made Q.C. in 1880. Meanwhile, in 1871 he had entered Parliament, became Minister of Inland Revenue in 1877, but was defeated in the next year and immediately afterwards re-elected for Quebec East. He remained in Parliament and became in 1891 the leader of the Liberal party.]

NO RAW MATERIALS FOR GERMANY.

Paris, Feb. 11.

In the Supreme Inter-Allied War Council M. Clemenceau in a most emphatic statement said that France could not possibly permit any importation of raw materials into Germany. The French argument was that Germany had already done most incalculable harm to all French industries in the occupied regions. The French Government knows that Germany was actually preparing a gigantic campaign endeavouring to crush French commerce and industry the moment the peace treaty was signed.—Havas.

ENOUGH TO POISON ALL HONGKONG.

IGNORANCE OF THE LAW.

Two Japanese were prosecuted this morning before Mr. R. E. Lindsell for selling poisons without being duly authorised to do so by the Pharmacy Ordinance 9 of 1912, Section 8. An enormous quantity of poisons—cyanide of potassium, strichnine, aconite, cantharides, morphine, mercury, tincture of opium, etc.—and hypodermic syringes were discovered.

One Japanese, who had two branches of his dispensary in 151, Queen's Road Central and 1115, Queen's Road East, was, on the statement of Inspector Terrett, guilty of having stocked "more poisons of certain kinds in his dispensary than Messrs. Watson's." This man had in his possession 110 bottles of various poisons and these were seized. A cursory inspection showed us that they could poison the whole of Hongkong.

The other Japanese, who had a pharmacy in 188, Queen's Road Central, and in whose possession were found 30 bottles containing 12 different poisons, pleaded ignorance of the law to Mr. Lindsell.

Mr. Lindsell:—You are ignorant of the law, and yet you keep a Japanese dispensary.

Defendant:—I am ignorant of the law.

A CHILDREN'S FESTIVAL.

DELIGHTFUL ENTERTAINMENT YESTERDAY.

How oft, heart-sick and sore,
I've wished I were once more.
A little child!—Mrs. Southey.

Last evening those who repaired to the Theatre Royal to witness the entertainment to be given by the Victoria branch of the Ministering Children's League in aid of the Ministering League funds were reminded by the packed house of the seven stages of mankind, which Shakespeare has so beautifully epitomised in "As You Like It." At first the infant musing and puking in the nurse's arms, and then the whining school boy with his satchel and shining morning face. And then the lover sighing like furnace, then a soldier full of strange oaths. And then the justice, full of wise saws and modern instances; then the sixth age with spectacles on nose and pouch on side, and last of all second childishness and mere oblivion." Every one of these stages was represented at the Theatre. Amahs, mothers, sisters, brothers and sisters all beat the track to the place and began securing seats from half-past three, so that at 5 o'clock, which time the curtain was rung up, there was not a seat to be had. This was quite tragic from a late-comer's point of view.

The entertainment was one that drew unlimited praise from the large audience that came to witness it. The place was filled to overflowing. The excellent character of the entertainment provided and the worthy object to which the proceeds were to be devoted appealed to the audience. The first part of the programme was devoted to songs and dances, and was the sole work of the children. It showed that very great pains had been taken by Mrs. Harris Walker to make the children performers perfect. Praise is also due to Mr. A. E. Paine for much hard work in connection with the event. The stage was prettily arranged and there was a blaze of flags round the circle.

After the orchestra, under the conductorship of Professor Gonzales, had played a selection of music, the curtain rose, and the Misses Dorothy Averall and Irene Nolan, of not more than six summers, executed a fan dance, and were seen at their best. It heralded the treat that was forthcoming. The Spanish dance by the Misses Jessie Weill, W. Lawson, C. and L. Smith, J. D. Carrere, A. H. Clark, B. Pascoe, D. Reichmann, H. McTavish and H. Hill.

CHINO-JAPANESE QUESTION.

CANTON CHINESE CHRISTIANS MEET.

After receiving a letter from Hsu Chien, the Minister of Justice, which stated that the sense of duty of the Christians in China at the present time should induce them to pay close attention to foreign affairs, in order to show their patriotism, the missionaries called a meeting in On Lok restaurant at Eighteen Street, Canton, on the evening of February 18, to consider the question "How are the Christians going to help China?"

After discussing this question for an hour the following resolutions were drafted by the missionaries:—(1) A telegram should be sent to Drs. C. T. Wang and Wellington Koo, urging the Peace Conference to press the proposal for the return of the Boxer Indemnity to China, (2) We should send one or two men to Europe to explain the conditions of our country.

These two resolutions will be moved at the next meeting of the Kwangtung Evangelistic Association on Friday next, and then sent to the China Contingent Committee—Canton Times.

TO-DAY'S CHINESE TELEGRAMS.

Wah Tsu Fat Po Service.

Peking, Feb. 19.

The Central Government is absolutely dominated by the Military Party, which continues making loans from Japan. The Cabinet yesterday decided to take up the 17 million dollars balance of the War Participation Loan from Japan, but is strongly opposed by Tang Shao-yei.

It is reported that another loan is under negotiation for ten million dollars for the purchase of aeroplanes from Japan and is nearly completed. Tang Shao-yei strongly repudiates the loan contracts.

Shanghai, Feb. 14. Chu Kai-Kim and Tang Shao-yei visited the Consuls yesterday, and Chu has invited the Consuls to a reception at his quarters to-day.

The Conference will begin to-morrow afternoon if the Shensi question offers no hitch. This must be settled first.

Korean residents in China have petitioned the American Minister to convey a request to Washington for an appeal to the Peace Conference on behalf of an oppressed and voiceless people. The petition alleges Japan's maladministration.

The Foreign Ministers held a meeting yesterday to discuss a telegram from Tang Shao-yei about the necessity of disbanding the National Defence Army. The Foreign Minister will reserve his attitude.

Meantime Tuan Chi-mi is still contemplating to reserve the Army under its present name of the War Participation Army.

The President proposes union of all railways built by foreign loans under joint administration with creditors, jointly, instead of severally, as heretofore. It is reported that this proposal will have diplomatic support.

Chu Shu-tsang and Tso Yu-lin oppose the President's railway union scheme, but the President will communicate with Luk Ching-cheong direct to put the matter before the Conference to be decided, pending enquiry. Mr. Gardner, who appeared for the complainant, said there was an alleged conspiracy by other parties. The complainant was rather anxious that the defendant be on bail, to facilitate the arrest of those who were implicated in the commission of this theft. Mr. Lindsell permitted the bail of $350 and remanded the hearing.

Some very smart arrests are now being effected by the members of the Hongkong Police. On information received, the latter arrested a Chinese in Reclamation Street, as he was coming from a Yumati ferry launch to Hongkong. A Chinese sergeant, named Li Fook seized him from behind, and therefore took him by surprise. Both the man's hands were pinned and the sergeant rushed him into the nearest shop, where two fokias held both the hands of the arrested man. This enabled the Chinese sergeant to remove from the man's pocket a fully-loaded revolver of 450 calibre, loaded with 28 calibre ammunition. The arrested man refused to give an account of himself. He said he was given the revolver by another man to sell it for $15, out of which he was to get $5 for his trouble. On Monday last the Police subjected the revolver to a test with its own calibre ammunition and found the revolver to be in working order. They also found that the 28 calibre ammunition in the revolver could be fired. One round was fired in the armoury at the Central Police Station. The man this morning was prosecuted by Mr. Murphy, and Mr. J. W. Wilson, the trying Magistrate sentenced him to twelve months' imprisonment.

The University meet the Indian Recreation Club, in a cricket match on Saturday, the 22nd inst., at 2:15 p.m. on the former's ground. The following will represent the Indian Club:—A. R. Kunjhan, G. C. Eard, S. H. Ismail, A. A. Rumjhan, S. D. Ismail, A. L. Andree, S. A. Ismail, E. Moosdeen, N. M. Box, J. D. Naria and R. Nazarin. Reserve: A. R. M. Samy and D. Rumjhan.

On Tuesday morning the Hongkong Police made a remarkable discovery. They discovered an old friend sauntering in Des Voeux Road West. The friend in question was a man who was banished for 20 years. Banishments were his fortune. Since 1912 he has been banished four times, the last occasion being in 1916 for 20 years. He has been committed to stand his trial at the next Criminal Sessions.

A young Chinese girl, whose age Mr. J. H. Gardner assessed at 14 years and Mr. R. E. Lindsell thought was about 18 or 20, was charged with the theft of $320. It appears that the defendant was the adopted daughter of the complainant and some time in August the complainant missed this money. She taxed the girl and also accused her. The girl admitted it, but blamed another woman for tutoring her to commit the crime. The thief was ordered to be despatched, pending enquiry. Mr. Gardner, who appeared for the complainant, said there was an alleged conspiracy by other parties. The complainant was rather anxious that the defendant be on bail, to facilitate the arrest of those who were implicated in the commission of this theft. Mr. Lindsell permitted the bail of $350 and remanded the hearing.

CRICKET REFORM.

THE RULE OF THE DIVIDED INNINGS.

It may prove difficult to go back at once to County cricket of the pattern of 1913, and wits are already at work to devise ways of dealing with the coming season. There is one alteration in the rules not mentioned hitherto, says "Spectator" in the Manchester Guardian, that seems to this would-be spectator worthy of consideration. It may be called the Rule of the Divided Innings. Instead of insisting that all ten wickets of one side must fall before the other side goes in, why not divide each innings into three parts and let the sides bat with more frequent alteration?

Thus, side A wins the toss and elects to bat first; they bat until three wickets have fallen, and then side B has its turn. When B's first three wickets are down, A returns for a similar space, then B again to the fall of their sixth wicket, then A finishes (last four wickets), and lastly B completes its innings. The process is repeated for what is at present the second innings, which is similarly divided.

The advantages are that good and bad luck of cricket and weather are much more equalised and that there is less likelihood of the tail-end batsmen flogging tired-out bowling, for the bowlers as a rule would be kept much fresher. The right to "declare" at any moment should be retained, and either side might forego its next fractional innings if it seemed more profitable to put the others in again. There would be less long scoring probably, for the not-out batsman at the end of a fractional innings would presently have to begin afresh and "get his eye in" once more; but, apart from the hardship to the individual, it is no disadvantage to lessen totals to some extent.

The spectators would see both sides bat on most days, and that is a real attraction, and there would be no need for any tinkering with the details of the game. The results also would lend themselves to more precise reckoning. Probably no decision should be taken until ten wickets had fallen on each side, but after that there could be a rising scale of points for a win at the fall of the 13th, 16th, and 20th wicket, exact comparisons being possible up to each of these limits.

The proposal, at first sight at least, appears one likely to minimise luck and enhance skill, and so make for a fairer estimation of the relative worth of sides and players.

Commenting on this suggestion the Guardian says:

"A Spectator" makes in our columns to-day an ingenious and, so we are aware, an entirely novel suggestion for the reform of cricket. He would have the opposing teams follow each other, not after the fall of each ten wickets, but in small detachments: three wickets to fall on each side successively, then four, then three. The most conservative about the game may see some attraction and not a little justice here. It would certainly add variety and brightness to the play for those who deplore its present dullness, and one may compare the development of baseball, where the American zeal for change and speed of action has severally limited the number of strikers in each innings. It would enliven the game, again, by giving the bowlers a breathing-space, and so it would diminish that painful attrition of the bowler which is the aim of many batsmen and the despair of every crowd. But the chief attraction of the suggestion seems to us to lie in a different direction. Games, if we rightly understand their spirit, are a trial of strength between opposing players under an equality of natural conditions—so far as these can be obtained—in respect, for instance, of weather and of ground. But, in fact, the winning of the toss is often so great an advantage that in itself it decides the game, and the true spirit of sportsmanship would welcome any reasonable change which would reduce the unjust disparities of fortune. In lawn tennis, as is well known, players often agree to change court after every three games when the sun gives a great advantage to the one of them, and a cricket captain who followed that excellent example would often desire to put in half his opponents' team to bat after half of his own had had their innings. The suggestion is better worth considering than most others of which we have heard.

AMERICAN TELEGRAMS.

The following are from the Manila Daily Bulletin:

CHINA SEEKS AMERICAN ASSISTANCE.

San Francisco, February 11.—Dr. Co Wang, managing director of the Peking-Hankow Railway with Ju Kia Hain, delegate of the Chinese republic to the peace conference, and Kung Cho Yeh, Vice Minister of Communications for China, have arrived here.

Dr. Wang announced that the mission will seek capital and co-operation for the extension of the Peking-Hankow Railway and the construction of other trunk railways in China. They will also solicit American co-operation for the development of industrial and mineral resources of China.

He said that America and China should find mutual markets for their products within their own areas, since America is nearer China than Europe and China is nearer San Francisco.

"Our ships go each way well laden and those ships should be fleets," he said. "You are sending your products to China and we are sending ours to San Francisco for contribution throughout United States. So far as compared with other nations America has but insignificant commercial and industrial interest in China.

Our desire is that she should profit by existing opportunities to change this paramount interest compared with those other Powers."

BUSINESS SLACKENING.
Washington, February 9.—The Federal Reserve Bank's monthly review says that business conditions are characterised by a slackening of production due to the reluctance of the commercial buyer to acquire stock of goods in anticipation of the reduction of prices. There is only a slight falling off in retail business.

girls. Miss Gladys Brock was heard to advantage in "A Birthday Song" and won a good reception. She is the possessor of a fine soprano voice. She was vociferously cheered and she appeared again and sang a portion of the song.

There was a big gathering of children in the finale of the first part of the programme, and this took the shape of a flower ballet, in which thirty children from little tots to girls of sixteen appeared. In this the children came on the stage in three rows dressed in various shades with hats to match. The little mites sat down while the rest went through a process of dainty shuffling, sixteen of them dancing together in couples and with identical dresses. They appeared also to be of the same height. They danced round and broke up before Miss Joyce Thorhill entered as a butterfly. She was charming and in her gold colour dress with golden tresses and two big wings of a butterfly she presented a beautiful picture of the butterfly. She received quite an ovation. It was a delightful picture. When it was the turn of the little tots to "line up" there was much merriment among the audience. Then the dance was in fours. When Master Jimmy Blackburn toddled up as Cupid the remark "so sweet" was on the lips of everybody. This item was not given only once, for rounds and rounds of applause caused the curtain to rise again and the ballet had to be executed once more. Still not satisfied and like Oliver Twist, the audience crying for more, the curtain, owing to the persistent demand of the patrons, had to go up again, but this time the children had planned amongst themselves not to do it again, and remained quite mute, as if to say "You wanchee look see—look see." The following took part in the flower ballet:

Pink roses—E. Mead, M. Bryson, Daphne Cropley and Dorothy Avenell.

Carnations—Iris Thorhill and Ruby Young.

Sweet Peas—Marie Nolan and Joan Crispin.

Buttercups—Winnie Lawson and Jessie Walker.

sunflowers—Ida Rose and Connie Smith.

Chrysanthemums—Tootsie Smith and Joan Arnedd.

Morning Glories—Lena Rocha and Susie Weill.

Poppies—Vivienne Young, Jessie Rose and Rosebud Young.

Cornflowers—Irene Nolan, Betty Eustace and Edith Rocha.

Sunflowers—Edna Blackburn.

Cupid—Jimmy Blackburn.

Fairy—Tuti Blackburn.

Great credit is due to Mrs. Harris Walker for the clever and striking arrangement of the dances and to Madames Blackburn, Thorhill and Young for the designing of the dresses.

The evening's entertainment concluded with a very laughable sketch entitled "The Lady Typist," produced by Mrs. Thornton and arranged by Mrs. Bridger.

The plot shortly is that a certain gentleman advertises for a lady typist in the columns of the "Morning Post" (We presume that it is the South

GET THIS DIET BOOK.

Food is as important to the sick person as medicine, more so in most cases. A badly chosen diet may retard recovery.

In health the natural appetite is the best guide to follow; in sickness the appetite is often fickle and depraved.

Proper food and a good tonic will keep most people in good health. Dr. Williams' pink pills for pale people are the most popular tonic medicine in the world, harmless, non-alcoholic, and certain in their action, which is to build up the blood and to restore vitality to the run-down system. For growing girls who become thin and pale, for pale tired men and women, for old people who fail in strength, Dr. Williams' pink pills are an ideal tonic.

If your blood is thin and watery, if your digestion gives you trouble, if you have rheumatic pains, an aching back, nervous headaches, a general sense of inefficiency or weakness, you will do well to begin Dr. Williams' pink pills to-day. Any medicine dealer can supply you, one bottle will be sent to you for $1.50, six for $8, by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 96 Szechuan Road, Shanghai.

To enable those who give these pills a trial to observe intelligent care in the diet, the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co. will send on request free a diet book, "What to Eat and How to Eat." It is full of useful information, and whether you are well or ill it is a good book to have.

The Maison Lily have asked us to advertise that a very large consignment of Hats, Afternoon Dresses, Evening Dresses, Blouses, Costumes, Coats, and Beaded and Embroidered Bags, with Necklaces to match, have just arrived.

As all these Goods are of the very latest Fashion, patrons will, no doubt, appreciate the value of making a call at Alexandra Buildings, with the view to selecting from the above stock their styles for Race Week.

DIOCESAN GIRLS' SCHOOL.

YESTERDAY'S FUNCTION.

On the occasion of the annual prize distribution at the Diocesan Girls' School yesterday, Miss Skipton, the Headmistress, was at home to many well-wishers of this admirable institution, the opportunity being taken to bid farewell to Miss Bascombe of the school staff and Mrs. Pope, who are shortly leaving the Colony, and to welcome Miss Roberts and Mrs. Jenkinson and Rev. A. J. W. Dowding, the newly appointed Chaplain of St. Andrew's Church.

The following report was read by Mr. Ranger on behalf of Miss Skipton:—We are very glad to welcome back Miss Ferguson and to have Miss Roberts and Mrs. Jenkinson. We shall be very sorry to lose Mrs. Pope and her children and Miss Bascombe and it is very hard not to express pleasure at having them with us for a while longer. There are first a few things to say which may interest you. Six girls gained Pitman's certificates in Theory of Shorthand. In the Royal Drawing Society's Examination we obtained 40 pass certificates and 53 Honour ones; one girl became entitled to a full certificate, having this year completed the number of her 8 Honour Certificates. In the H. K. University Examinations the 4 Juniors passed and 8 out of 9 Seniors one of whom Esther Susie Tsui, to our great sorrow was called "Home" in our Christmas holiday. She had won full Drawing Certificates in this connection. I may express our great gratitude to God that in the last 18 years since November 1900 this is only the second scholar that has been called away from the midst of us—the other being a little boy who died in Hospital. Surely goodness and mercy have been round our paths and over our dwelling. We have again to record the death of an old scholar at the Front, Howell Stapleton. Our deep sympathy goes to his mother and father and brother. Some of the girls have made designs for a Roll of Honour which you can see. Our thanks are due to the kind donors of prizes Lady Ho Tung, Mr. Wong Kau-fuk, Mr. Chan Kai-ming, Mr. Coupton, Mr. White. About prizes I should like to say that as long as there is no discontent or grumbling or jealousy among the scholars and parents and children acquiesce loyally in the judgment of the Headmistress and the staff, arrived at after very careful consideration, prizes are good. They are a means of disseminating many good books which most children, however well off, will hardly ever get, and one always "hopes for the best" that they are read.

The prize list was as follows:—

Class 1.—Eva Ho Tung, Irene Ho Tung, E. Connell, Edwina Rogers, Lolita da Rousa, Maria Kocker, May Pincher, Robbie Shea.

Class 2.—Mabel Gittens, Enid Connell, Alda Remedios, Victoria Manning.
